

How to Share Your Success

For additional resources on this and other service-learning topics visit Learn and Serve America's National Service-Learning Clearinghouse at www.servicelearning.org.

Ever wonder how you could promote your service-learning program and share your accomplishments with a national audience?

Learn and Serve America's National Service-Learning Clearinghouse can do it for you. Our website reaches a nationwide audience and we want to show all those folks the great work you and your program are doing.

We've made it even simpler for you to contribute.

Send the Clearinghouse your:

- photos and videos
- success stories,
- lesson plans and syllabi,
- sample forms, and/or
- other service-learning resources.

By doing so, your project and works are getting publicized to a nationwide audience AND you're helping grow and support the service-learning community! Check out all the ways to promote your program through NSLC at www.servicelearning.org/library/share/.

Sharing library materials is especially easy.

How easy is it? It's easy as 1...2...and that's all! Fill out our simple form today and become part of the nation's largest service-learning resource collection and let others know about the successful approaches used in your service-learning program! ## It Really Works!

"Thank you so much for continuing to tell Tropical Elementary School's Canine Commandos story. We have been contacted by several people through Learn and Serve which in turn has helped our program more than I can tell you. Because of the nature of our service learning program, we can use all the help as we can to 'get the word out' with helping animals in local shelters. Again, thank you so much for allowing us to tell our story."
